

such, Senator BARRASSO's name should not be listed as a requestor.

Mrs. MURRAY. My colleague and subcommittee ranking member, Senator BOND, is correct. This resulted from a clerical error involving confusion between two different projects in the city of Casper. Senator BARRASSO should not be listed as a sponsor of the Civic Auditorium project.

Mr. BOND. I thank the chair for her assistance in this matter.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that on Tuesday, March 10, tomorrow, after the opening of the Senate, the Senate resume consideration of H.R. 1105; that the remaining amendments be considered, debated, and that after all debate is concluded on the remaining amendments, the Senate then proceed to vote in relation to the amendments in the sequence established under a subsequent order, with 2 minutes of debate equally divided and controlled in the usual fashion prior to a vote in relation to each; and that after the first vote in the sequence, remaining votes be limited to 10 minutes each; that upon the disposition of all remaining amendments, there be 30 minutes of debate prior to a vote on the motion to invoke cloture on H.R. 1105 that will be equally divided and controlled between the leaders or their designees, with the remaining provisions of the order of March 6, 2009, remaining in effect.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. What this means is we will tomorrow debate all of the amendments. I think there are seven left. A number of those may not be brought to a vote. After the debate is completed, we will set a time to start voting, and we will go right through the sequence as indicated in the unanimous consent order.

It should work out very well. Everyone has had an opportunity to offer the amendments they want that are on the list.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

NOMINATION OF DAVID W. OGDEN TO BE DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL

Mr. REID. I now move to executive session to consider Calendar No. 21, the nomination of David Ogden to be Deputy Attorney General.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the motion. The motion was agreed to.

The clerk will report the nomination. The assistant legislative clerk read the nomination of David W. Ogden, of Virginia, to be Deputy Attorney General.

CLOTURE MOTION

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I send a cloture motion to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The cloture motion having been presented under rule XXII, the clerk will report the motion.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

CLOTURE MOTION

We, the undersigned Senators, in accordance with the provisions of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, hereby move to bring to a close debate on the nomination of David W. Ogden, of Virginia, to be Deputy Attorney General.

Harry Reid, Patrick J. Leahy, Sheldon Whitehouse, Richard Durbin, Charles E. Schumer, Ron Wyden, Patty Murray, Amy Klobuchar, Debbie Stabenow, Bernard Sanders, Russell D. Feingold, Benjamin L. Cardin, Dianne Feinstein, Daniel K. Akaka, Herb Kohl, Jon Tester, Edward E. Kaufman.

Mr. REID. I ask unanimous consent that the mandatory quorum be waived.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. I regret that we need to file cloture on the nomination of David Ogden to be the Deputy Attorney General.

Mr. Ogden is eminently qualified for this job. He is a graduate of Harvard Law School and clerked on the Supreme Court for Justice Harry Blackmun. During the Clinton Administration, he served as the Assistant Attorney General for the Civil Division and as Chief of Staff to the Attorney General. He is currently a partner in a major Washington law firm.

His nomination was reported favorably by the Judiciary Committee by a vote of 14-5, with 3 Republicans including Ranking Member SPECTER supporting him. So there is little doubt cloture will be invoked and he will be confirmed.

As I understand it, the argument of those who oppose him is that he took positions on behalf of law firm clients that some members do not agree with. In my view, that is an unfair basis for opposing a nominee.

In any event, it is unfortunate we could not enter into a unanimous consent agreement to debate the nomination and have a simple up/down vote. President Obama deserves to have his advisors, especially members of his national security team, in place as quickly as possible. If we are forced to file cloture on nominees who are obviously going to be confirmed, we are wasting up valuable time that should be used to address the pressing problems facing the nation.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Mr. REID. I now move that the Senate return to legislative session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the motion is agreed to.
